*The Max Reger Foundation of America (MRFOA) is a not-for-profit organization that creates opportunities to promote the music and legacy of Max Reger, as well as a broad spectrum of music to the present day.
It is our aim to provide avenues for music education and performance for children and professionals within the United States.*

We achieve these goals by granting education awards to young children, by sponsoring recitals and concerts presented by students and professionals, sponsoring music research projects and commissioning new works by talented composers.

2010 MAX SUMMER MUSIC

The Max Reger Foundation of America (MRFOA) plans to start a collaboration with the prestigious Harbor Conservatory for the Performing Arts in 2010. MRFOA has initiated a summer camp music program to benefit over 35 children in Boston and New York City; giving them the gift of music under warm skies.

The Gift of a Musical
Education

Fulfill
a Child's Dream

What Does This Mean For You?

A tax-deductible gift of $50 to MRFOA will give children the opportunity to fulfill their dream of an inspired education. If all of our donors contribute $50 dollars, we will reach our goal of $20,000 providing students a summer education in Latin and Classical music next year.

What Does $50 Mean To The Kids?

A lifetime of memories and experiences that will inspire their love and passion for music.
